WHY HIRE TONY HUNTER?

HE'S NO COOKIE CUTTER FUTURIST.

As an event professional in the Food, Beverage or Agriculture sectors are you fed up with "Futurists" who tell you Airbnb has a market cap of $110 bn, doesn't own a single room .... AI, blah, blah and robots will steal our jobs? If so, then you should retain Tony for your conference! Other futurists are "a mile wide and an inch deep" in everything, Tony is an "inch wide and a mile deep" in FOOD.

HE'S BELIEVABLE BECAUSE HE'S ONE OF THEM.

Your delegates can relate to Tony with his 30+ years in the Food, Beverage and Agriculture industries. This experience, coupled with his qualifications as a Food Scientist, give him a unique industry perspective. His insights will leave your audience with an inspired understanding of the exponentially changing Future of Food from now to the next 5, 10 or 20+ years.

YOU'LL GET SUBSTANCE, NOT INSUBSTANTIAL CLICHÉS.

Want some substance to what's happening and not just a vague, "we'll all be ruined" or "don't worry it'll all be ok"? Want an informed, targeted insight into your audience's specific industry instead? They'll hear things which will challenge their thinking and they'll gain deep insights into the alternative futures of their industries. And all anchored by his unique concept that food is now technology and technology changes exponentially. This is the basis of his trademark TECHXponential™ concept.

HE DOESN'T JUST TURN UP, SPEAK AND LEAVE.

He sees his role as being to help make the event a success, not simply turn up, then "talk, and walk". He's always happy to stay for the day and add even further value to the event or even host a pre or post-conference dinner. He can also present his trademark FutureMind™ strategic foresight sessions as small group sessions or workshops before, during or after the event.

THE FUTURE OF FOOD IS HIS DOMAIN WITH FASCINATING AND INSPIRATIONAL TALKS ON THE TECHXPONENTIAL™ FOOD FUTURE

His keynotes are all about how cutting edge food technologies will determine the Future of Food. All informed by his deep industry and food science experience and up to date knowledge of food technologies.

See his Keynote onesheet for more details.
